ERNESTINE BEALE PROUDLY DISPLAYS the 14-pound rockfish she caught last week at Virginia Beach. "I've never done much deep sea fishing," said Mrs. Beale, "and I got so excited when I caught it, I got sick all over!" The fish served 10 people for four meals. "My fish was the biggest catch in the group," concluded Ernestine, "and most of them were men!"

White plans short track debut

Larry White of Appomattox is scheduled to make his short-track debut at South Boston Speedway July 10, in the Mason Day Paving 200 Championship race.

White will be driving the No. 77 Camaro, which he owns. He plans to run in the 25-lap street stock class for the remainder of the 1982 racing season.

South Boston is a 3/8-mile paved Nascar track. Many Grand National stars have raced at this track, and still do, including Darrell Waltrip, Harry Gant, and Lennie Pond, to name a few.

White is hoping to get a sponsor so he can run for the championship at South Boston Speedway. His car is now in Madison Heights, being prepared for the July 10 race at South Boston.
